WILL MISSOURI "SHOW" US?

The officials of the State of Missouri, in common with a large majority of the other citizens of the United States are intensely interested in the coal situation. Missouri, in common with the other Commonwealths of the Union, has certain public institutions which should be properly run in order that the functions of government may not be interfered with. Coal is an important factor in the running of these institutions and the State officials of Missouri have grasped one horn of the dilemma by leasing a coal mine, which, according to report, will be operated by the State to supply its public institutions with necessary fuel in case the strike assumes large and inconvenient proportions.

This goes a long way toward meeting the "divine right" claim of the operators with that intensely practical power called the "right of eminent domain," by which the State is empowered to prevent a recurrence of such condition as prevailed in the winter of 1902-'03.

It may be that Missouri is showing us the proper solution of the vexed problem which arises in connection with labor disputes, which are seized upon by unscrupulous dealers to artificially boost prices and to unjustly tax the consumers of such a universal necessity as coal.

PROSPECTS OF JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

The Richmond News Leader observes that "it is time for Virginians to realize that the Jamestown Exposition is a real living thing with splendid prospects of success. The action of various State legislatures in appropriating solid money in large amounts for displays at the exposition removes the last lingering doubt. The Virginia legislature has been generous. Now it is for the people of the whole State to cooperate enthusiastically and to begin to lay their plans to attend. This State alone ought to furnish at least five hundred thousand visitors by way of a start when the gates are opened.

Undoubtedly it will. With that army of visitors and those who will be gleaned from the 20,000,000 of people within twenty-four hours' ride of the exposition site, the attendance at the Jamestown celebration should be greater than that at any other exposition in the history of the country, especially in view of the fact that there will be on exhibition certain features which never have been seen at any other exposition. The people of the United States are intensely interested in the navy and in naval construction. Not only Virginians and the descendants of those who went out from the Old Dominion, but hundreds of thousands of others will turn their faces toward the east, knowing that on the bosom of Hampton Roads they will have the greatest exposition of naval construction possible.

Our friends of the mountains and of the plains will flock here to see this feature of the celebration, and will be attracted and entertained and enlightened by the exhibits found on the grounds.

Virginians certainly should begin to realize that the Jamestown Exposition is a real living thing and that it has something more than "prospects" of success.

COMPLAINT AGAINST C. & O.

The complaint filed against the Chesapeake & Ohio railway by a Richmond banker, who alleges discrimination at the expense of Richmond and of eastern ports in behalf of Philadelphia, should be investigated. The road, however, should not be condemned previous to a fair trial of the matters at issue. There certainly is nothing in the figures of export shipments at this port to justify the belief that there has been any serious discrimination against it in the recent past. As a matter of fact, it looks as if the road has been exerting itself to throw everything possible in this direction.

We do not believe it will prove necessary to misrepresent the attitude of any of the railway corporations in order to secure the necessary rate legislation.

This reduction in the price of illuminating gas might very properly be placed under the head "light refreshment."

FOUR WOMEN CLAIM HIM.

Charge That Hotel Proprietor Is Much Married.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
HACKENSACK, N. J., April 2.—A. Fellmans, a hotel proprietor of Lyndhurst, N. J., is a prisoner in the Hackensack jail, charged with bigamy. So far as Justice Heath ascertained, Fellmans is the husband of four women, two of whom have appeared before him.

Wife No. 1 came from New York, and found her husband living with Rosa Alda, who says she is married to the hotel proprietor. Wife No. 1 was not willing to take a chance, and charged Rosa with adultery. He was furnished her to the amount of $1,000. Fellmans expects his friends in New York to bail him out. He says he was never married to wife No. 1 and she has caused trouble out of revenge.

"Everybody Works."

Every one labors except our distinguished progenitor.

He reposes in a recumbent position within our residence through the day. His pedal extremities idling upon the bronze of the steam radiator. Serenely engaged in extracting nebulous atmosphere from a tobacco receptacle of mundane matter. Our material mentor receives soiled linen for the purpose of cleaning it.

And in this connection I should include Bill Ann.

Indeed, everybody is engaged in some variety of occupation in our domestic habitat—

Excluding, as primary suggested, our distinguished progenitor.—New York Tribune.

COUNTRY MARRIAGE NOTICE

Editor of the Leona, Kan. Hustler

Writes a Witty "Write-up"

Country editors all have to "write up" many weddings. There is one wedding they all seem to enjoy describing. Here is an instance of literary and personal felicity from the "Leona, (Kan.) Hustler."

"The bride wore a beautiful dress of French lawn, at least that's what they said it was.

"The groom (that means 'we') wore the customary black-and-me-down, and was about scared to death.

"There were no bridesmaids or best man, because the groom did not think he could find a better man than himself.

"Miss Randolph is a peach; most of her beauty is natural, and she looks good to us; she is one of our school-mates and we know can throw a brick with remarkable accuracy. A sample of her rare nerve is shown by her vowing to 'love, honor' etc."

"The other interested party is a joke; he came to Leona in the fall of '83, without clothes or money, and now free from all financial debt. There are others just as bad and they are not in the penitentiary either."

FAST MAIL FIGHT ON.

Much Opposition Aroused Over the Service Over Southern Road.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—The usual annual fight over that item of the postoffice appropriation bill which appropriates $147,000 for fast mail service over the Southern Railway from New York to New Orleans and the South, is about due, as the house of representatives will take up consideration of the bill in a few days.

The dwarf—The lightning calculator seems to be off in his work. The Giant—Yes. Ever since last pay day he has been trying to figure out how he can pay a $10 board bill out of a salary of $7.50 minus $3.25 in fines.—Judge.

MILL MEN ON STRIKE

Two Hundred Quit Their Jobs in the State Capital.

THEY WANT THE NINE-HOUR DAY

Also Ask for an Increase of 10 Per Cent. in Wages—Employers Refuse to Treat With the Men—Only One Mill Working.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., April 2.—Two hundred and twenty-five sturdy mechanics—the entire membership of Mill Men's Local of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union—laid aside the implements of their trade shortly after 7 o'clock this morning and went out on strike.

This move followed the refusal of the mill proprietors or their authorized agents to grant the mill men a nine-hour day, a 10 per cent. increase in wages and a half-holiday every Saturday.

Report for Work as Usual.

The strikers showed up bright and early this morning, as usual, and forthwith went through the form of submitting their demands to their respective bosses.

When a negative reply came back to them all hands marched out into the April sunshine to work no more until they get what they desire or agree to some compromise. The mill proprietors, in a word, refused absolutely to treat with their employees save as individuals and declined to recognize the union.

The Plants Concerned.

The establishments concerned, which all manufacture sashes, blinds, doors and such interior woodwork, are as follows: Miller & Miller, W. J. Walchurst, Montague Manufacturing Company; Sittler, Carnel & Davis; C. W. Hardwicke, American Furniture and Picture Company, Joseph Hepper, R. A. Siewers and Francis Brothers.

It was said by one of the strikers this morning that the big establishment of Miller and Miller today is the only factory of its kind in the city that is now in working condition, though something like an average of five non-union men remain in each of the other plants.

Hatchet Dug Up.

A necessary Utensil.—"Jones and his wife are quarreling again?"

"Oh, yes!"

"I thought they buried the hatchet?"

"Well, so they did, but the very next time Mrs. Jones had to chop the kindling, she dug it up."—Puck.

THREE FACTS

For Sick Women To Consider

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements of the female organs, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, inflammation of the female organs, weakness and displacements, regulating the periods perfectly and overcoming their pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing women for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.
